Independence of Parliament.

Under all systems of constitutional government the independence of Parliament is a matter of no little consequence. Under a responsible form of administration and with a House numerically small the principle derives accumulative importance. The object of the present article is to point out that the independence of our little Parliament is threatened,—not in the way guarded against by constitutional checks, but in a way no less fraught with danger to the public interests,—as will presently appear. During the very first session Provincial patronage was brought to bear upon members suspected of independence or radicalism; but, to the honor of Parliament be it said, only one visibly succumbed to the seductive influence. Several instances are known in which the tempting bait was indignantly spurned. That there were instances in which members were kept in a more conservative condition of mind by having baits dangling over their heads during the session, we will not venture to deny, —but more of this anon. The danger would have been less formidable had it been confined to Provincial patronage, in respect of which the people could, sooner or later, exercise their constitutional power—the constitution making the Ministry responsible to the people for the dispensation of Provincial patronage. But the chief danger to the independence of Parliament is to be apprehended from the use or pretended use of Federal patronage for Provincial objects. It will readily be seen that if the Governor or if any one of his Ministers can succeed in making members believe that Federal patronage can and will be employed for the purpose of rewarding their loyalty to the Provincial Government the independence of Parliament is, indeed, in imminent peril. In other words, if the Government are permitted not only to make a reckless use of patronage constitutionally at their disposal, but of Federal patronage, to which they have no right, for the purpose of corrupting and purchasing the support of members, then, indeed, is the independence of Parliament in danger, and our boasted People's Government is a delusion and a snare,—unless, indeed, it can be shown that the Parliament of this Province is composed of material incapable of corruption and in no degree susceptible to the softening influences of patronage. That Federal patronage has been used in some instances and attempted to be used in others is beyond contradiction. That the Local Government has had any considerable amount of Federal patronage within its fingers we do not believe. That it has pretended to a great deal, we know; but the danger is much the same whether the power to dispense Federal patronage be real or pretended. The evil consequences of an indulgence in this sort of game are not merely local. They are likely to have a wider range, and tend to undermine the loyalty of this people to the Dominion Government. It just coms to this: If the Local Government are permitted to use or pretend to use Federal patronage for the purpose of keeping themselves in office contrary to the popular wish, the popular mind will gradually but surely become hostile to the supreme Government which permits such a misuse of its patronage. That such will be the natural and inevitable result of the little patronage game now being played in this Province goes without talking. That such results have even already begun to manifest themselves in this community is beyond question. Nothing could tend more to depopularize the Dominion Government in this Province than to permit an unpopular Local Government to trade upon Federal patronage. Nothing could tend more surely to build up a Grit wing on the shores of the Pacific than for the Provincial Government to be allowed to employ Federal gold for the purpose of sowing discord and dissatisfaction amongst the very party to which the Dominion Government should look and have looked for support. All that we ask is that the present Ministry may be left to stand on their own bottom, and the breath of public opinion will very soon blow them over and clear the way for men of more practical and liberal ideas—men who believe in Responsible Government, know what it is and mean to carry it out in its true spirit and integrity.

Who is He?

Somebody in this community is writing letters to the Ottawa "Free Press," and a local contemporary makes a practice of reproducing them here. From one of the letters, republished yesterday, we clip the following: "A strong effort was made by a ring of capitalists to oust Mr. DeCosmos whose independence does not suit the Nathan clique, and a vigorous effort was made to defeat him. Mr DeCosmos is emphatically the favorite of the people, while Mr. Nathan is the representative of the official circles. The fight was even. Mr. Beaven received only a small number of votes, out of the whole number, which was only 535. It is claimed by the adherents of Mr. Nathan that he would hence be the "senior" representative; though in point of age, experience, ability and popularity, Mr. DeCosmos is unquestionably the most important representative man for this district." The circumstance of Mr. Nathan having gone in at the head of the poll and Mr. DeCosmos at the tail of it, ought, one would think, to constitute a tolerably conclusive answer to Mr. Correspondent's nonsense about the "favorite of the people." The assertion that "Mr Nathan is the representative of official circles" is, indeed, in strange contrast with facts. It is a well known fact that the officials supported Mr. Beaven as against Mr. Nathan, a leading member of the Government making a personal canvass through the District for him,—a circumstance which doubtless contributed to the smallness of the number of votes polled by that gentleman. While carefully concealing the fact that Mr. Nathan received the largest number of votes, the correspondent says "hence" Mr. Nathan's friends claim that he will be the senior member, and then proceeds to show why such ought not to be the case. To what does the adverb refer? And, pray, Mr. Correspondent, why should not Mr. Nathan's adherents claim that distinction for him? That was the real issue,—Mr. Nathan fought for the position and won. Oh, but Mr. DeCosmos is an older, abler and more experienced politician. But what of that? Wisdom does not always come of age; nor is experience always turned to profit. As for "ability," that had better be left an open question. But, admitting all, how much greater the honor of beating him! As we have already intimated, the real struggle was as to which should be the "senior member." Mr. Nathan won that distinction, and all the anonymous scribblers in this community cannot deprive him of it. But who is this extremely impartial and veracious correspondent, whose misrepresentations we have had to expose more than once? He seems to take a wonderful interest in Mr. DeCosmos, and vice versa. Surely an old, experienced and able politician would not be guilty of sounding his own praise in an Ottawa paper and then re-echoing it in his own organ here! Perish the thought!

The Best-made Pair of Boots.

EDITOR COLONIST:—A card in your issue of the 15th inst., signed W. Palmer, on the award made at the late Agricultural Exhibition, for the best made pair of Boots, calls for a few remarks from the undersigned.

I regret the tone, also, the reflections, which smack rather of insult cast on the two gentlemen acting in conjunction with Mr. Webster as judges of boots and shoes (Mr. Webster, I am assured, would not have acted had there been a third person present appointed to act as judge). And I am informed Mr. Webster had the good sense to leave the decision on the best pair of boots entirely to the two judges, who, I believe, acted entirely on their own judgment he (Mr. W.) only concurring in the unanimous award.

I would inform Mr. Palmer, if he is not aware of it, that bottoming does not constitute the making of a pair of boots.

With regard to his challenge, fortunately I have something else to do, besides making up prize boots, and am quite satisfied to leave the public to judge who makes the best boots.

I shall not enter any further into newspaper controversy.

Arrival of the Otter from Skeena.

The Otter arrived from Skeena at 7:30 a. m. yesterday with 118 passengers. The news from mines is on the whole very discouraging, only about ten claims in the whole country are paying. Discovery Bar and a claim on Manson Creek are paying about $20 per day to the hand. Our informant states that the diggings are all shallow, only the Discovery Bar being over 3 feet deep. No distinct lead can be struck; it appears to be scattered around. A man may take out $3 in a pan of dirt and then will not make a dollar in a week. Peace River Smith and some others have found good prospects on Osalinka river and all with the exception of Smith, have taken a year's grub and left for that district. The following is the account of the Otter's trip for which we are indebted to Purser Smith:

The Otter arrived this morning from the north with 126 passengers from Skeena (22 from Woodcock's and 104 from Essington). On the way up called at Nanaimo, Comox, Alert Bay, Fort Rupert, Bella Bella, Port Essington, Woodcock's Landing, Methlakathla, and arrived at Fort Simpson on the 16th Oct. Left again on the 17th., and touched on the way down at Woodcock's, Port Essington, Bella Bella, Fort Rupert and Departure Bay. A party were preparing to start from Woodcock's in a sloop lor Queen Charlotte's Island to prospect. Mr. Fawcett and Mr. Deans accompany them as passengers to the coal mine. The schooner Nanaimo Packet was at Fort Simpson when the Otter left. The steamer G. S. Wright arrived at Tongas on the 14th Oct. on her way north. The Otter brought down about $10,000 in gold dust besides what was in private hands.

ADDITIONAL.

From a miner who left Germansen Creek on the 7th October we learn that a tremendous freshet occurred on Germansen and Manson creeks on the 30th September and 1st October, which swept away flumes, wingdams, sluices, wheels—indeed, all the machinery that happened to be in the creek—and filled the claims. This freshet compelled the men to leave a fortnight earlier than they would otherwise have done. The wreck was complete and the damage very great. The rise was equal to the spring freshet and the water was very high when our informant left. The nights were cold and frosty. Fryingpan Pass is in good order, the logs having been all cut out. The money voted (for a wonder) was well expended; but this is explained by the fact that the work was done under the superintendence of Mr. Fitzgerald, S.M. Skeena River was high and the health of residents good.

The general result of the mining season has not been flattering; but the diggings will be worked for years. There are a few good claims. The Discovery bench on Manson Creek was still paying and promised well for next year. It paid an ounce a day to the hand the entire season. The Discovery Claim on Lost Creek was paying 50 or 60 ozs. per week to 4 or 5 men. Jim May and party took out ten months' provisions to give Strange River (a tributary of the Omineca) a thorough trial. They regard appearances as favorable and found a small prospect in deep ground.

The health of the camp was good. Mr. Page is wintering as Recorder at Germansen Creek. Mr. Fitzgerald, S. M., will winter either at Stuart or Tatlah Lake. Not more than 50 men will winter in the mines and the next arrival from Skeena will bring 124 men.

The miners have been well supplied from Fred. Black's ranch on Germansen Creek, with turnips, onions, radishes and lettuce at 25 cents per lb. There is no fear of scurvey. The traders have large stocks of goods of all kinds and everything is very low-priced.

Funeral of the late Captain Swanson.

The remains of the late Captain Swanson were conveyed to their last resting place at the Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The body lay in state at Masonic Hall, Government street, which was open to the public from 10:30 a. m. till 3 p. m. At about 3 45 p. m. the funeral cortege started from the Masonic building, headed by some 60 members of the Masonic Order, led by a band. Next came the corpse with Messrs. Judson Young, J. W. McKay, D. McKay, Elliott, Moffatt and Captains McNeil, Mitchell and Pamphlet as pall-bearers. Captain Lewis and a son of deceased were chief mourners, and next came most of the gentlemen composing the H.B.Co's staff in this city as well as a large number of citizens who followed out of respect to the memory of the deceased. The procession went from Government street to the Pandora Street Church, where the service was performed by the Rev. F. B. Gribbell. The procession then continued its course to the cemetery, at the gates of which the Masons opened ranks and received the corpse, which was then placed in the grave. The usual service being concluded, Mr. John Winger read the Masonic Funeral Service in a very impressive manner. Many a tear was shed by those standing around the grave of one who so lately was moving among them in the full enjoyment of life and vigor. At the conclusion of the service the procession wended its way back to the Masonic Hall where it disbanded. Few funerals have been so largely attended as that of yesterday, showing the high estimation in which the deceased was held.

City Council.

The Council met at 7:30 o'clock last evening. There were present His Worship the Mayor and Couns. Gowen, Gerow, Taylor, Robinson, Mitchell. The minutes of previous meeting was read and adopted.

A communication was read from Capt. Clarke and others drawing attention to Marian street from North Park, and asking that a 3-foot sidewalk be laid. Referred to the Street Committee.

A communication from Lowen and Erb stating that owing to the fact that the part of the sidewalk laid by them was too high, in comparison with that part laid by order of the Council, they would take up their sidewalk and grade it to a level with that already laid on condition that the Council will cart away the ground. Referred to the Street Committee with power to act.

A communication from Thos. Allsop calling attention to three wells being uncovered in some unimproved lots near Quebec and Oswego street.

Accounts from Thos. Craigie, $11; Wilkinson, $4; Morrison, $11; R. Turner, $11; COLONIST, $7; R. T. Williams, $3 50; Geo. Stelly, $666; Thos. Storey, $15; Duck & Sandover, $18 75—Referred to the Finance Committee with the exception of that of Thos. Storey, which was referred to the Street Committee.

The following tenders for a sidewalk on Kane street were read:—M. Munroe, 39 cents per foot; J. M. McDowell, 33 cents per foot.

There appeared to have been a mistake in the action of the Council last meeting with regard to this sidewalk. The motion of last meeting that the sidewalk be laid by the Council according to Sec. 36 of the Act was rescinded and the Clerk ordered to notify the property owners to do it. The tenders were accordingly deferred.

In consequence of Mr. Lowenberg, the agent for property on Wharf street, having refused to repair the sidewalk fronting on that property, it was ordered that the Council do the work and the amount be registered as a charge against the property.

The Clerk was ordered to draw up the certificate for Messrs. Kinsman & Styles that their work on the culverts was satisfactory to the Street Committee, and the date from which the interest on the cost commences.

Council adjourned.

Police Court.

A Fort Rupert Indian was charged by a woman of his tribe with kicking her, and was fined $20, or, in default of payment, 2 months imprisonment.

Another Fort Rupert Indian was charged with kicking a man named Silas J. Frost. He was remanded for one day.

EDUCATION.—The Board of Trustees met last evening and a communication was read from the Superintendent asking for particulars and objecting to paying the half month's salary for the beginning of August. Two of the Board stated that the Provincial Secretary had said the Government were willing to pay all the accounts and the extra half month's salary if endorsed by the Superintendent. The Secretary was ordered to inform the Superintendent that the Board are of opinion that the salary for the first half of August is due to the teachers, as they were engaged from Aug. 1st and were in readiness to commence their duties at that date, though the schools were not ready. In fact, the Superintendent had promised the salary for the full month to one of the teachers when he was engaged. Application was made by the schoolteachers for coal and wood to warm the schools. The trustees, though hardly inclined to pass any accounts on account of the action of the Superintendent and the Government with regard to those already passed, judged it necessary to attend to the want immediately and ordered the fuel for the schools.

NANAIMO.—The new bridge over Millstream, at its mouth, is completed and is described as a substantial and workmanlike structure; but we are given to understand that the approach to the end nearest the town is altogether too steep. The bridge over Millstream on the Wellington road, to replace the one destroyed last summer by fire, is also finished, and is said to be an excellent job. Work on the Nanaimo River bridge is progressing satisfactorily. Business is brisk, and coal mining operations are being pushed forward with vigor. The Vancouver Coal Company are re-opening the old works known as "the old back level," which have been closed for about three years, and will soon be drawing coal therefrom. A young man, son of Mr. Jones of Comox, was out shooting one day last week. On returning home he took the gun from his shoulder, when it was accidentally discharged, lodging the contents in his neck. His father brought him down for medical treatment. Rev. Mr. Clarkson has been officiating in Ebenezer Church, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Derrick, and has been drawing large congregations.

RECONSTRUCTION.—It is said that Hon. Mr. Holbrook is in town to assist in reconstructing the Local Ministry. It is also rumored that he is in favor of the adoption of a drastic policy—i. e., taking the Opposition bull by the horns. A full Council will meet to-day when the conundrum of "WHOSE THE JONAH?" will be answered by Mr. Holbrook.

C.P.R. SURVEY.—Camp T. was ordered down from Tete Jaune Cache by Sandford Fleming and, it is expected, will be at Cache Creek in a few days. Y Party (Dewdney's) has been running a line downwards from T. Party towards the U. Party. It is expected that they will also also be down in a short time,

THE SOCIAL at the Wesleyan Church last evening was well attended. After tea remarks were made by the Rev. Mr. Pollard, followed by a reading by Miss Elford, and an oration by Mr. Wm. Pollard. The Choir contributed greatly to the evening's entertainment.

THE PRINCE ALFRED sailed on Monday evening at 5 o'clock with 60 passengers and a large freight. She will be due here on Friday.

Mainland Summary.

From the N. W. "Herald."

In the rifle match which took pl on Saturday an excellent score was made on both sides, Page winning the purse with 57 points.

More than twenty-three thousand tins of salmon have been put up this season by one company in this city.

Mr. Morrison, of Langley, brought into town yesterday the carcase of a panther. The animal must have been a formidable customer when alive. It was nearly nine feet in length, and had claws, the sight of which would be sufficient to scare a sheep to death. This is the second panther Mr. Morrison has killed this season.

Messrs. Moody, Dietz & Nelson's steamer arrived from Burrard Inlet last evening with a load of lumber. We hear that the steamer, on her return to the Inlet, will be laid up to receive her new shaft, etc.

We are informed that we made a mistake last Saturday in calling Dr. Carrall Health Officer. Dr. Trew holds that position; Dr. Carrall's appointment is in connection with the Indian Agency.

Winter comes on apace. Within a few days the summits of the Coast Range Mountains have received their first sprinkling of snow. Ice has also formed during the frosty nights.

We hear that an Indian at Yale has been telling the good folks there that he was employed here at the funeral of one of the victims of smallpox; and that he was forthwith ordered to "clear out." The rascal's story is made out of the whole cloth; no Indian was employed at the funeral referred to, we know; nor, we believe, at any other lately.

A HOLBROOK TO THE RESCUE!—The Hon President of the Executive Council arrived yesterday. It is said that he comes to rescue McCreight & Co. from their plight and to aid, by the exercise of his clear judgment and great good sense, in shaping their policy for the future. We remember on one occasion he rose to "pour oil on the troubled watah-ah!" But if he pours the unctuous fluid on the Opposition fire that now blazes so fiercely he will but add fuel to the flames. Have a care, Henry, with your oil-can.

DR. CARRALL, while at New Westminster, completed arrangements for guarding the natives from the ravages of the smallpox. The Superintendent of Indian Affairs, Dr. Powell, is entitled to praise for his prompt action in this respect.

EUREKA ORE.—About one ton of this silver ore may be seen at the office of Moody, Dietz & Nelson. Twenty to for shipment to San Francisco will brought down on the Fly.

A LARGE number of the friends of J. Nicholson, Esq., have tendered that gentleman a public dinner previous to his departure from the Province.

FROM THE SOUND.—The schooner Page arrived from the Sound yesterday with 48 head of cattle.

THE Prince Alfred's passenger list will be found under the telegraphic heading.

Pastures of the Mainland.

EDITOR COLONIST:—In the open woods

covers the ground. This grass cattle will only eat as a new growth after fire. I have seen cattle leave splendid bunch grass towards the end of May, and feed ravenously on large tracts of this "wer grass," which the previous season they would not look at. A fire in the fall had swept over it and the new growth was the delight of the horned epecures. Large tracts of country can be thus converted into good pastures. Even can be improved this way.

ALKALI GRASS

makes excellent hay when cut in good season.

RED TOP AND PEA VINE,

of which there are inexhaustible supplies on all the high plateaux and mountain heights wherever the soil is good and moist, makes beautiful hay. Pea vine however "does not last" as a growth when cut for hay. It has moreover to be mowed early and saved very carefully or it will go to powder.

WILLOW SPRIGS, COTTONWOOD AND EVEN PINE TOPS will carry cattle through the winter and keep them in pretty fair condition especially where hangs around. The Indians convert this moss into a paste of which they make a nourishing but unpalateable bread. Two years ago a band of cattle disappeared on the highest part of

PAVILION MOUNTAIN.

The snow fell, the winter raged,, and the owner gave up all hope of seeing a single head turn up alive by spring time. What was his surprise and gratifications can be easily imagined, when, on the weather breaking up and enabling him to resume the hunt, he not only found his cattle alive but in excellent health and spirits, and by no means anxious to quit. They had wintered, as shown by their tracks all round, in a grove of small pines, their only feed being

PINE TOPS AND REINDEER MOSS.

They were in such good condition that the steers were sold for the Cariboo beef market.

Last winter at

with the thermometer at 23 deg. below zero and with no other shelter from the pitiless storm but cattle came out in spring in fine condition. When cattle know a "run"; that is, if they have wintered on it, and are acquainted with the 'lay' of the springs (which don't freeze up) with the sheltered spots, the different pastures, the various trails leading to them, the slippery spots to be avoided, the dry sandy patches where sleep, &c., &c., they need but very little "looking after." This is especially case with cattle raised on the spot, thoroughly inured to the climate.

Perhaps a cow here and there may calve and must be stabled for a few days, or an ox breaks through the ice and has to be pulled out, or another one strains itself by slipping, and has to be "seen to." All a stock-raiser need really provide for is about a ton and a half of hay per head, or in other words six WEEKS feed in case of an unusually hard winter and bad luck. With the exception of a few sickly ones his band will not require feeding perhaps ONCE IN TEN YEARS. It is but prudent however to allow your stock of hay to accumulate from year to year, and make timely preparation for feeding it economically.

has been a great help to our stock-raisers, as it has been a great boon to the cattle. It effectually replaces excepting for salting hay. It has also a very decided tendency to fatten, and is only dangerous on imported cattle when near to it, and apt to lick up too much. In that case it will swell up and kill them. Fat or oil is the counter poison.

Alkali has a

on milch-cows. A dairy should therefore be placed as far from "alkali spots" as possible. We shall suppose a settler about to engage in the business of

STOCK-RAISING.

All he needs at first, after buying a band of say 25 to 30 head of cattle, is a good Indian to look after them, and prevent them scattering. They must be well watched until they get to know one another and attached to the run, when they can be left to shift for themselves for long intervals at a time. Of course the owner must use his discretion in this, and visit them oftener should there be any danger of their being driven away, and particularly when another band of cattle is passing through, as many of the young ones will then stray away.

An axe, a grindstone, a logging chain and neck yoke, a yoke of oxen and a horse is about all.

THE STOCK IN TRADE

he requires to commence operations. He then sallies forth into the woods and chops down the trees he wants for his buildings. He trims and cuts them the right length and hauls them to the spot he has selected for his future home. He calls upon his neighbors for a "BEE" and on the day appointed ten or a dozen men troop in, roll up the logs, place the rafters and complete skeleton of his future steading. At his leisure he will "cover the roof in" cut out the windows and daub the gaps. He next turns his attention to his CORRAL. If he has a large band, say from 50 to 100 head, this will require some skill, experience, and forethought, for upon the manner of building, the plan and contrivances to be adopted, much after time and expense will be saved.

The details on this most important part a STOCK RAISER'S STEADING; the description of one or two of the most complete and well-planned I have seen "up country"; the weight and price of cattle, trails required, markets to be reached, estimated acreage of the pasture lands and number of cattle they will maintain I reserve for another letter.

Card of Thanks to Dr. Chong.

AFTER BEING TREATED FIVE MONTHS by a white doctor, and spending nearly $300, I was worse than when I first went to him. I had quite despaired of being relieved when I read Dr. Chong's Card in THE COLONIST. I placed myself under his care and in NINE DAYS I was a well man. I write this card to discharge a debt of gratitude I owe to Dr Chong whose charges, I may also say, were reasonable. My complaint was neuralgia. WILLIAM McCORMICK.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Med Staff)

CHLORODYNE.

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P Wood stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE, that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr J Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne: that they prescribe it largely and mean no other than Dr Browne's.—See TIMES, July 12, 1864.

The Public therefore are cautioned against using any other than

DR J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This INVALUABLE REMEDY produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the nervous system, restores the deranged functions and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvelous good effects and wonderful cures while medical men extol its virtues most extensively using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—

Diseases in which it is found eminently useful—Cholera, Dysentry, Diarrchœa, Colics, Coughs, Asthma, Cramp Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cough, Hysteria, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

The Right Hon Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J T Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet Dec 31, 1864.

From A Montgomery, Esq., late inspector of Hospitals, Bombay: Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy for Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other medicines had failed.

Dr Lowe, Medical Missionary in India reports (Dec 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr Collis Browne's Chlorodyne was administered the patient recovered.

Extract from Medical Times, Jan 10, 1866—Chlorodyne is prescribed by scores of orthodox remedical practitioners. Of course it would not thus be singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place.

Extract from the general Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

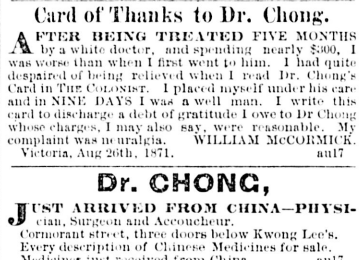

Beware of spurious and dangerous compounds sold as CHLORODYNE from which frequent fatal results have followed.

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug 1, 1869, which states that Dr J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.
